LOWRY COMPUTER PRODUCTS EARNS CERTIFICATION AS A SYMBOL PROFESSIONAL SERVICES PROVIDER

BRIGHTON, MI – January 5, 2005 Lowry Computer Products today announced that it has completed Symbol's certification program and is now a SymbolCertified Professional Service Provider. SymbolCertified Professional Service Providers earn certification through comprehensive training, testing and a demonstration of services skills and knowledge of Symbol's line of products.

Lowry Computer Products, headquartered in Brighton, MI, is a leading manufacturer and systems integrator. Lowry provides customers with technology solutions - such as bar code, wireless, data collection and most recently RFID-EPC - that meet their business needs. Symbol Technologies, Inc., headquartered in Holtsville, NY, is a global leader in mobile data management systems and services. Symbol's innovative customer solutions are based on wireless local area networking, application-specific mobile computing and bar code data capture. Lowry and Symbol have collaborated on wireless and mobile solutions for more than twenty-five years.

As a SymbolCertified Professional Services Provider, Lowry has access to Symbol service best practices and the ability to deliver professional services for Symbol-based solutions. When delivered by a manufacturer-trained partner, customers are assured of the Symbol service provided.
